INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

The deaths of two players on the Laconia, N. H., football team from the disease, called infantile paralysis, seems to offer a splendid opportunity to scientists in medicine to study the causes and development of this little known disease. The fact that there are no other cases of the disease outside the members of that football eleven presupposes that the cause of the disease lies in some action or contact to which the team alone was subjected. If such, then, is the case, it would be the course for scientists to trace the actions of the members of the team for some time back, or since they began training and practicing for the present season of the school game. In that way it may be possible to determine from what source the disease sprang and, going further into the analysis, they may be able to discover the germ of the disease itself. So good an opportunity to study the strange features of this disease has not been offered in a long time. The opportunity should not be allowed to slip by without thorough investigation. Advancement of medical science depends a good deal upon it.

PLAN NO FUSION.

Manager of Vermont Progressives Says They'll Put Up Candidates.

October 8, 1913.
Barre Daily Times, Barre, Vt.
Gentlemen:—Will you kindly publish this announcement: That the Progressive party is planning to put into the field next year in the state of Vermont a full ticket including candidates for all states and county officers; also congressional and senatorial candidates for the United States House and Senate, and we propose to push a vigorous campaign from now on.

The Progressive party is not planning, or has not planned for a fusion movement with either of the old-line parties. Any information which has gone into the press, based on any resolutions by our state committee, which were passed simply for the purpose of inviting people to support our platform and candidates should not mislead anyone to think that we have contemplated fusion. We propose to conduct a clean campaign with our own party platform and with our own party ticket.

We are planning to hold meetings within the next month in both the first and second districts with the Hon. Victor Murdock of Kansas as speaker.

Yours truly,
Charles F. Thompson,
Chairman of the state executive com.

Walter Balch of Shrewsbury had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday, when the 45-foot bridge which crosses the stream near his woodlot, collapsed, throwing him, three horses and a load of 1,700 feet of hemlock into the stream. Mr. Balch had gone about half way across the bridge when all the stringers gave way about 12 feet from the end. The water is about five feet deep at this point. With the aid of oars, the horses were rescued and escaped injury. Mr. Balch was badly lamed.

Rexall Ad-Vantage No. 2

Do You Love Violets?

Do you love to gather them, to bury your face in the mass of their sun-kissed petals—to revel in their fragrance?

Then why not carry with you everywhere the soft fragrance of choicest fresh-cut violets? You can, by using for all your toilet needs—perfume, talcum, cold cream, soap sachet,—the dainty

Violet Dulce Perfume and Toilet Preparations

In the south of France, near the border of Italy, there springs in early January the Parma Violet, one of the finest and sweetest that blows. It is loveliest in the shade of the olive trees. The peasants who gather this violet for us go out soon after midnight to pluck it while it is still wet with dew. Before dawn, tons upon tons of these violets are heaped up in the distilleries. By noon they have been converted into the concentrated essence that comes over the seas to us.

To make an ounce of this essence, upon which our Violet Dulce is based, two tons of violets are used.

Violet Dulce Toilet Goods are sold to you under our positive guarantee that if you do not find them entirely satisfactory, you can have your money back. This guarantee is good in any Rexall Store, of which there are more than 7,000, one leading druggist in each important city and town in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. By their co-operative manufacturing and distributing arrangement, these stores can give you the advantage of very moderate prices on Violet Dulce Toilet Goods, as will be seen from the following list:
